

DEVELOPMENT & MARKETING VOLUNTEER

Development Events Volunteer

SUMMARY OF ROLE

The Development and Marketing departments deliver a range of events throughout the year. These include opening-night receptions, studio/stage rehearsals, corporate dinners, press nights, trust nights and many more. Many events are for supporters of Birmingham Royal Ballet to acknowledge their commitment and support of the Company. We are looking for volunteers to assist in the lead up and/or successful running of these events in a number of ways.

Volunteers must be over 18

As a Development Events Volunteer, your role could include:

- Interacting with the general public being a friendly and enthusiastic face of Birmingham Royal Ballet
- Assisting with the set up and shut down of events
- Distributing marketing material/flyers/ conducting surveys at performances
- Escorting individuals to events and engaging with them
- Assisting with administrative tasks such as guest lists, ticket allocations

If you have any additional skills that are relevant to this role, please let us know when you apply.

This role would be perfect for someone who:

- Has great interpersonal and communication skills
- Enjoys working in a team
- Has an interest in the arts and is enthusiastic about Birmingham Royal Ballet
- Is interested in hospitality, marketing, digital work, or events management

Time commitment

When offering to volunteer with us you will be asked about your availability, so please be aware that this role is likely to involve some evening and weekend work.

How to apply

If you are interested in this role, please complete the 'Offer of Service' form or contact Sam Howe on samhowe@brb.org.uk