

ENGAGEMENT & PARTICIPATION VOLUNTEER

Ballet Training Volunteer

Ballet Training opportunities are held throughout the year at Birmingham Royal Ballet studios giving aspiring dancers an opportunity to work with professional dancers. This role offers volunteers an opportunity to see Birmingham Royal Ballet's world class dancers at work, giving special insight into different teaching approaches and styles offered by our expert team.

SUMMARY OF ROLE

To provide care to the Students in order to secure their safety and wellbeing in line with safeguarding and health and safety policies. The volunteer will assist the Chaperone with signing in and out processes, and during workshops. Engage with parents, venue staff, BRB team and students.

Volunteers must be over 18

As a Ballet Training Volunteer, your role could include:

- Contribute to the exciting work of the Engagement & Participation team
- Interact with the general public being a friendly and enthusiastic face of Birmingham Royal Ballet
- Ensure the safety and well-being of the students that are in your care
- Ensure that students sign in and out of the venue at the start and end of each rehearsal/session with arrival/departure times logged.
- Escort students to the studios (this involves stairs)
- Make sure students are safe while in the studios/venue during the sessions
- Ensure that the students are quiet and well behaved during the sessions so as to avoid causing any disruption.
- Be fully aware of the procedures for evacuating the building in case of fire or emergency, and the escape routes the students are likely to use.
- Supervise and care for the students in the event of an emergency (e.g. fire alarm, first aid or dance injury), reporting any incident to the Chaperone as soon as possible.
- Monitor the health and well-being of the students; knowing who the Birmingham Royal Ballet qualified First Aiders are and where to find them.
- Make sure that the Chaperone is informed immediately if a student suffers any illness or injury.
