

ENGAGEMENT & PARTICIPATION VOLUNTEER

Engagement Activities Volunteer

SUMMARY OF ROLE

The Engagement & Participation team deliver a range of engagement activities throughout the year. These include Audience Open Days, Ballet What's that? events, performance projects, auditions, Discovery Days, Relaxed Performances, Audio-described performances, Touch Tours and many more. These activities give an opportunity for people to learn more about ballet and see what goes on behind-the-scenes.

We are looking for volunteers to support us with these events. The role requires someone who is physically fit as you be asked to help with setting up and clearing away events. You will be engaging with a diverse range of people and all ages and will be expected to ensure their participation is in line with safeguarding and health and safety policies.

Volunteers must be over 18

As an Engagement Activities Volunteer, your role could include:

- Contribute to the exciting work of the Engagement & Participation team.
- Interact with the general public being a friendly and enthusiastic face of Birmingham Royal Ballet.
- Ensure the safety and well-being of all in line with your pre-event briefing.
- Ensure that participants sign in and out of the venue at the start and end of each rehearsal/session with arrival/departure times logged if required for the project.
- Escort participants to the studios/room (this involves stairs), making sure they are safe while in the venue during the sessions.
- Be fully aware of the procedures for evacuating the building in case of fire or emergency, and the escape routes from whichever rooms the participants are likely to use.
- Supervise and care for the participants in the event of an emergency (e.g. fire alarm, first aid or dance injury), reporting any incident to Birmingham Royal Ballet staff member as soon as possible.
- Undertake other duties as requested by the project lead to ensure a successful project.
